AFFAIRS IN BROOKLYN.

HARMONIOUS WORK OF THE KINGS COUNTY

GENE LAL TRACY'S RESIGNATION.

GENERAL COMMITTEE. Secretary Tracy's resignation from his seat in the Kings County Republican General Committee was accepted at the monthly meeting of that body last ever ing, in Brooklyn, and G. L. Nichols was appointed in his place. Resolutions of respect to the memory of Colonel W. W. Stephenson were adopted. The Executive Committee reported that it was duly organized on February 16, and appointed a sub-committee of nine to attend to the distribution of Federal patronage. On April 1 the sub-committee was abolished and the matter of patronage was referred with power Chairman Woodruff. A motion to accept and adopt the report roused sharp discussion, but it was adopted by a vote of 124 to 31. Theodore Cocheu offered resolutions expressive of the satisfaction of the committee in the choice of General Tracy for Secretary of the Navy, and they were unanimously adopted and ordered engrossed. Jesse Johnson offere resolutions of thanks to the Legislative Committee for its work in redecing the bills of Mayor Chapin for city improvements over $3,000,000, while no just want of the city had been slighted or neglected. These two were unanimously adopted.

TO CONTEST P. P. MAHONEY'S WILL. The will of ex-Congressman P. P. Mahoney, offered for probate last week, is to be contested by his sisters, Mrs. Pendergast and Mrs. Cahill, on the ground fraud and connivance. It bears date seven days be-fore his death and leaves all his property to his wife, whom he married four months ago. Mrs. Pendergast says she is convinced that it is not her brother's will, His will was made a year ago last July when he was going to Europe, and it was entrusted to her. She claims that her brother was not in full possession of his mental faculties, as he was unconscious at the time the will was signed. The will will come up for probate on April 18.

ANOTHER MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE. The mysterious disappearance of Frank S. Waddell, a young Virginian, who boarded at No. 77 Rodney-st. is causing much alarm among his friends. He came to the city from Charlotteville, Va., about two months ago to fill a clerkship in the offices of the Northern Improvement Company, in Broadway, this city. He went to board with a friend from Virginia at the house of Charles Heard, No. 77 Rodney-st., A week ago last Saturday, he started for husiness as usual, and has not been heard of since. His friends in Virginia are unbeen heard of since. His friends in Virginia are un-able to suggest any reason for his unexplained absence.

The discussion of "The Modern Perspective of the Bible" was introduced by the Rev. Dr. William Hayes Ward, of Newark, N. J., Editor of "The Independent." The Rev. Dr. Lyman Abbott and the Rev. George Saunders also discussed the subject. The next discussion, "The Christian Law in Economic Questions," was introduced by Thomas G. Shearman, of Brooklyn. At the evening session the subject for discussion was "The Mission of the Church to the Lapsed Massos."

A SWIFT NEW PATROL BOAT. A new patrol boat was added to the Police Department Navy yesterday. It is a foot shorter than the old rowboats used by the Harbor Police, and is as pretty as anything of its kind in this neighborhood. Policeman Joseph J. McEvoy, who was a shipcarpenter before he joined the force, fourteen years ago, is the esignor and builder of the craft. He is detailed to look after the mechanical arrangements of the Harbor Squad. In odd moments during the last few months he has worked on the boat, which was completed on Saturday and launched yesterday after being pronounced a model of perfection. The planks are white cedar and the ribs split oak. It is built for speed and in it one man yesterday beat two men in one of the old boats of the Department.

COLONEL PELLOWS CALLED AWAY AGAIN. District-Attorney Follows made an ejtremely short stay in the city. He was at his office for a few hours on Monday after an absence of three weeks. He left the city again yesterday morning. He said that he had received a telegram from New-Orleans, where his wife and daughter are, conveying info mation that his daughter was seriously ill. One of Colonel Fellows's daughters died not long ago. Mr. Fellows went away as soon as he had received the information, and, of course, he could not fix the date

A YOUNG MAN DANGEROUSLY STABBED. George Sutherland, a young man who said he lived at No. 312 West Thirty-seventh-st, was slabbed in the left side early yesterday morning in a street brawl at Thirty-seventh-st. and Ninth-ave. He declared that he did not know who stabbed him. At the Rooseveit Hospital yesterday Sutherland was said to be in a critical condition, and the prospect was that he would die.

MME! PLONQUINVILLE RELEASED. Mme. Pionquinville, nee Susan Kennedy, who arrived here on the French steamship La Gascogne on Monday on her way to her sister-in-law at Louisville, and was detained at Castle Garden because of being mentally incapacitated, was put in the care of her friends yesterday. Thomas W. Wright and his two sisters, friends for many years of the woman, called at Castle Garden and promised the Commissioners of Emigration to be responsible for her.

MR. CROKER IS CITY CHAMBERLAIN. APPOINTED BY THE MAYOR AND SWORN IN-

VACANCY IN THE STRE. DEPARTMENT. Richard Croker was appointed City Chamberlain by Mayor Grant yesterday in place of William M. Ivins, who had resigned. Mr. Croker immediately resigned the office of Fire Commissioner, which he has held for six years, filed his bond as City Chamberlain, and took the oath of office before the Mayor. It was administered in the Mayor's private room, in the pres-ence of W. Bourke Cockran and his law pariner, William H. Clark, Under-Sheriff Thomas F. Gilroy, man of the Tammany Committee of Twenty-four, Secretary Crain and Confidential Clerk Dominical O'Farrell.

The new City Chamberlain entered upon his duties at once at his office in the Stewart Building. His first act was to reappoint William W. Ladd, jr., who has been Mr. Ivins's deputy throughout his term. Ladd subsequently accompanied Chamberlain Croker to the Mayor's office and was sworn in, a proceeding which under Mr. Ivins had been deemed Mr. Ladd said that his appointment was temporary All the cierks in the office were retained temporarily.

The appointment under which Mr. Croker assumed the duties of Chamberlain is only for the unexpired term of Mr. Ivina. On May 1 the Mayor will issue a fresh commission for Mr. Croker for four years from that date. The bond given is for the same amount of security as that given by Mr. Ivins, $500,000. Croker's bondsmen are John D. Crimmins in $100,000; James Everard, $100,000; ex-Justice John McQuade, $100,000; J. Edward Simmons, $100,000; David Dows $50,000, and James N. Platt, of the law firm of Platt & Bowers, $50,000. Each surety justified in double the amount of his liability given in the bond,

Richard Croker has been the recognized leader of Tammany Hall since the death of John Kelly. He was born at Roscarberry, Ireland, on November 24. 1843, and came to New-York when an infant with his parents, who took up their abode on the East Side in the Twenty first Ward. The boy learned the trade of a machinist, and became a mechanical engineer He was the engineer of the first steam engine to New-York, which was used by the Pacific Engine Company, No. 28, of the Volunteer Fire Department. He got the place by election, being a member of the company. From this he became leader of the Tammany organization of his district. Mr. Croker was elected to the Board of Aldermen in 1867. Two years later he was re-elected, but his service in his second term was short. With others of the Young Democracy he opposed the passage of the Tweed charter, and the great Boss promptly had the entire Board legislated out of existence,

When Tammany Hall was reorganized in 1872, Mr. Croker joined with John Kelly in that movement, and the following year was rewarded by being nominated and elected a coroner. In 1874 he supported ex-Mayor Hewitt when the latter defeated ex-Sheriff James O'Brien for Congress. It was in First-avo. upon election day of that year, in a dispute between O'Brien and Croker and their respective followers that one of O'Brien's partisans was killed by a pistol-shot. Croker was charged with the murder, but was acquitted by the jury after a long trial. In 1876 he was again elected coroner on the Tammany ticket. Three years later he was renominated, but with all of Kelly's ticket was defeated. In 1883 Mr. Croker of Kelly's ticket was defeated. In 1883 Mr. Croker was again elected Alderman from his district, the XVIIIth, but before he could take his seat he was appointed Fire Commissioner by Mayor Edson, to succeed John J. Gorman, who was transferred to a Police Justiceship. Commissioner Croker was reappointed on the expiration of his term by Mayor Hewitt in 1888 for the full term of six years.

Mr. Croker's successor in the Fire Department has not yet been appointed. It was believed yesterday that Mayor Grant would make no appointment to the vacancy until the other appointments are made on May I, when it is probable that the Board will be reorganized, and that Mr. Purroy alone will remain a Commissioner. Various Tammany district leaders are named as candidates for the vacancies.

STILL DISCUSSING THE CHALLENGE. The committee of the New-York Yach Club ap pointed to consider the Dunraven challenge are non committal in the extreme. Secretary Oddle of the club was practically buried in documents relating to club business yesterday. The secretary had no opinion on the coming races to offer to the public. It is of course to be assumed that the committee will not dictate to the club what shall be done; yet, as The Tribune has said before, a suggestion from that collection of expert yachtsmen would be perfectly in order, because the members composing the committee are undoubtedly competent in the highest degree to decide what would be of the greatest advantage.
